

Energy deregulation gives you the power to choose your electric supply company, just like you can with your internet, cellular phone companies, and other service providers.

As a consumer oriented company, Connecticut Gas & Electric ("CTG&E") has set high standards for supplying electricity while offering the same quality of service provided by your utility.

The CTG&E Advantage:

- Special offers for being a valued customer
- Access to additional promotions and rewards
- A dedicated customer service team committed to your satisfaction
- Enrollment is quick, easy and free
